Carefully read the description of the award – this will indicate the criteria upon which adjudication is based. If the award description has clearly stated criteria, your application should be tailored to the criteria as specified. If the description does not have clearly stated criteria, your application should focus on interpersonal skills, contributions to the MOT program (with examples) and contributions to the professions (with examples). However, you must ensure that each application is unique and does not simply repeat information provided in other applications.

(4129) Sarah Brabyn Memorial Service Award
Eligibility: MOT1 or MOT2	A $2,500 service award has been endowed in memory of Sarah Brabyn, who was at the time of her passing in 2002 a student in her final year of study in the Occupational Therapy program at UBC. The award is offered to a student in Occupational Therapy who has good academic standing, especially in the area of biomechanical occupational therapy and has demonstrated the qualities exemplified by Sarah: leadership, community involvement, and a strong collegial spirit. Please describe how you are demonstrating leadership and your involvement in the community. The award is made on the recommendation of the Department of Occupational Science & Occupational Therapy.
Value: $2,500

Application forms are to be submitted to David at david.tsukada@ubc.ca by 4:00 PM on June 25, 2021.
