

Bursary Name: University of British Columbia Rehabilitation Sciences Alumni Bursary

Student Name:

Student Number:

Date:

Mailing Address:

City:

Province:

Postal Code:

Email Address:

Telephone Number:

Carefully read the description of the bursary – this will indicate the criteria upon which adjudication is based. If the bursary description has clearly stated criteria, your application should be tailored to the criteria as specified. If the description does not have clearly stated criteria, your application should focus on interpersonal skills, contributions to the MOT program (with examples) and contributions to the professions (with examples). However, you must ensure that each application is unique and does not simply repeat information provided in other applications.

University of British Columbia MOT Student Legacy Bursary
Eligibility: MOT2	A bursary of $1,500 endowed by the graduated MOT Class of 2020, awarded to a second year student in the Master of Occupational Therapy Program based on financial need, participation in school and community activities, and academic standing. The recommendation is made by a faculty-led committee from applications received.
Value: $1500	* Administered by the Department of Occupational Science and Occupational Therapy*

Application forms are to be submitted to David at david.tsukada@ubc.ca by 4:00 PM on June 25, 2021.

In the space below, write a statement of 150 words or less explaining why you deserve this award. If the award description has clearly stated criteria, your application should be tailored to the criteria as specified. If the description does not have clearly stated criteria, your application should focus on your interpersonal skills, contributions to the MOT program (with examples) and contributions to the professions (with examples). However, you must ensure that each application is unique and does not simply repeat information provided in other applications. Do not include activities in which you were involved before entering the program. Incomplete applications, applications received after the deadline, or applications that exceed the word limit will not be considered. Students do not have to meet a minimum academic requirement in order to be considered eligible for bursaries.

Describe in 150 words or less why you deserve this bursary and how you meet the criteria:

Word Count: